A D Sally called, when she got the word and she said, "I suppose you've heard

E A E about Alice?"

A D When I rushed to the window and I looked outside and I could hardly believe my eyes

E A E as a big limousine rolled up, into Alice's drive.

A Oh, I don't know why she's leaving, or where she's gonna go

D I guess she's got her reasons but I just don't want to know

E A E 'Cause for 24 years I've been living next door to Alice.

Α

24 years just waiting for a chance to tell her how I feel, and maybe get a second glance

E D A E now I've got to get used to not living next door to Alice.

We grew up together, two kids in the park, we carved our initials, deep in the bark me and Alice.

Now she walks through the door, with her head held high just for a moment, I caught her eye as a big limousine pulled slowly, out of Alice's drive.

Oh, I don't know why she's leaving ...

And Sally called back and asked how I felt and she said, "I know how to help get over Alice"

She said, "Now Alice is gone, but I'm still here, you know I've been waiting for 24 years and a big limousine disappeared.

Oh, I don't know why she's leaving ... E D A ... now I've got to get used to not living next door to Alice. 2x
